

FORMS OF ACTIONS

Student Worksheet

Name: _____

Forms of Action Chart

Personally Responsible	Participatory	Justice-Oriented
Action that falls within the expectations of a responsible citizen. Usually defined by an individual's actions.	Action that involves participation and leadership within community-based organizations. Works to understand structures and systems but works within the established systems and structures and seeks collective participation to achieve goals.	Action that critiques systems and structures to look beyond the immediate issues to their root causes.
Examples: Voting, paying taxes, recycling, giving blood, volunteering or donating in times of crisis	Examples: Organizing a toy donation drive, volunteering for a political campaign, attending city council meetings, and supporting community-based projects for change, like establishing a community CSA	Examples: Pressuring people in power to address root issues such as poverty, racism, etc., challenging internalized biases in self and others, building power in communities towards a shared vision

FORMS OF ACTIONS

Student Worksheet

Name: _____

